

ANNUAL DANCE DECEMBER 2019

Dore Masonic Hall was the place to be on Saturday as it resounded to the music of Robert Whitehead. Why? It was the Annual Dance of the RSCDS Sheffield. It is an evening that most people have eagerly waited for, having been in their diaries for nigh on 12 months.

The evening kicked off with the appropriate "Autumn Leaves" and continued with an excellent choice of dances ranging from the well-known Shiftin' Bobbins, to Mrs. MacPherson of Inveran, The Bonnie Lass O'Bon Accord and finishing with a good old "Highland Ramble-r".

During the evening there was an excellent buffet meal and even enough for seconds, if you were so inclined, and, of course, the raffle draw which had some very nice prizes.

The Master of Ceremonies for the evening was done by two class acts, Debbie and Kate, who did a splendid job of recapping the dances and even the odd walk through for those less familiar dances.

All in all a very pleasant evening and one for diarising for next year.
